NUTS AND BOLTS OF IMMIGRATION PRACTICE

What you will learn & why you should attend...

Nuts and Bolts of Immigration Practice will present a detailed analysis of current Immigration Law and policy issues. This course is a must for the aspiring Immigration practitioner as well as experienced practitioners in other “cross-over” disciplines. Immigration Law impacts companies and individuals alike in many related disciplines, including Criminal, Family, Business, Corporate, Employment and Labor Law. If you practice in any of these areas, this program is a must. Join our panel of experts and enhance your ability to represent clients in Immigration and other “cross-over” matters. You will learn:

- The “Nuts and Bolts” to build your Immigration practice — for new practitioners or just those new to Immigration.
- How Immigration Law significantly impacts individuals and companies in the “cross-over” disciplines of Criminal, Family, Business, Corporate, Employment and Labor Law.
- Strategies and practical approaches to working with the INS, US Department of State, US Department of Labor, and MD Department of Labor, Licensing & Regulation
- The latest developments in Immigration law, including those changes in the aftermath of 9/11.
- Options for Temporary Visas and Permanent Residence through Business and Family Sponsorship.
- Waivers and Relief from Deportation/Removal before the INS and US Immigration Court.
- How to avoid ethical violations and conflicts of interest unique to Immigration practice.

Program Agenda...

- Building an Immigration Law Library
- Nonimmigrant Visas – The ABCs
- Immigrant Visas – Family & Employment Based
- Admissibility & Removability
- Adjustment of Status & Consular Processing

REFUND AND CANCELLATION POLICY

Telephone, fax and e-mail registrations, accompanied by a credit card authorization, and regular mail registrations, accompanied by a check or credit card authorization, will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. two (2) days before all regular full-day and half-day programs. Registrations at the door will be accepted for regular full-day and half-day programs, but please call to verify availability, date, time, and location. MICPEL reserves the right to cancel or reschedule any program and will notify registrants at least 24 hours in advance of such cancellation or rescheduling. Full refunds, less $20 for administrative expense, will be made for cancellations received by 5:00 p.m. the day before regular full-day and half-day programs. If you register for regular full-day and half-day programs, but do not attend or cancel, you will receive the course materials following the program in full consideration of tuition paid.

ACCREDITATION

For Live Programs: MICPEL is an accredited sponsor in Pennsylvania, Delaware, New York, Virginia, and West Virginia. MICPEL courses are also routinely approved for credit in every other MCLE jurisdiction in the United States. If you need credit from other states or organizations, you will be given a certificate of attendance for filing. Certificates of attendance will be issued at the end of the live program.

For Video Replays: In order to comply with Pennsylvania State MCLE guidelines, MICPEL can only give CLE credit for those video replays held in the Baltimore or Rockville locations. To ensure proper credit, please attend MICPEL video replays in the Baltimore or Rockville locations. Certificates of attendance will be issued at the end of the video replay.
