EDITORS

Angelo A. Paparelli is a partner of Seyfarth Shaw LLP. Mr. Paparelli, with a bicoastal practice in Southern California and New York City, is known for providing creative solutions to complex and straightforward immigration law problems, especially involving mergers and acquisitions, labor certifications and the H-1B visa category. His practice areas include legislative advocacy; employer compliance audits and investigations; U.S. and foreign work visas and permanent residence for executives, managers, scientists, scholars, investors, professionals, students and visitors; immigration messaging and speech-writing and the federal courts.

L. Batya Schwartz Ehrens is an associate specializing in business immigration at Pollack, Pollack, Isaac, & DeCicco, LLP in New York, NY. She advises large and small corporations on visa strategies and immigration compliance. She also represents investors, executives, and artists seeking green cards and visas. Ms. Schwartz Ehrens has authored articles and spoken at financial institutions on the topics of employment-based immigration options, E-Verify, and I-9 Compliance.

Dan Siciliano is the Associate Dean for Executive Education and Programs and a Senior Lecturer at Stanford Law School. He is also co-founder of LawLogix Group, Inc. - a global software technology company recently named to the Inc. 500 and twice ranked as one of the Top 100 fastest growing private software companies in the United States.

US Tax Compliance For Immigrants And Employers: The Lawyer's Complete Guide

Editor: Paula N. Singer, Esq.

Contributing Author: Gary P. Singer

EDITOR

Paula N. Singer, Esq., a partner with the tax law firm, Vacovec, Mayotte & Singer, LLP, Newton, Massachusetts, concentrates her practice in international tax matters for individuals, businesses, trusts, and estates. Ms. Singer has been advising employers, payers, and taxpayers on cross-border matters for over 25 years. Ms. Singer assisted the IRS with the development of Form 1040NR-EZ. Her comments on proposed regulations under Section 7701(b) (the substantial presence test) and under Section 1441 (withholding on payments to foreign persons) of the Internal Revenue Code were incorporated into the final regulations under each section. Ms. Singer has a B.A. from the University of Maine (Orono) and a J.D. from the University of Maine School of Law. She speaks and writes regularly on international tax topics. Many of her articles are posted on the Windstar Technologies, Inc. web site, and on her law firm's web site, www.vacovec.com. Ms. Singer is the author of a series of books published under the collective title U.S. Tax Guides for Foreign Persons and Those Who Pay Them. She is the Co-chair of ABA Section of Taxation International Sub-committee, Cross-border Individual Tax Issues.

EDITORS

Joseph P. Curran has been exclusively involved in the practice of immigration and nationality law since 1985, with experience representing clients in all aspects of this area of law. He has served as counsel to numerous individuals, major corporations, universities, and research institutions, specializing in immigration issues impacting on business and family-based sponsorship in the New England area. He has been an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association since 1985. As a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association Congressional Liaison Committee, Attorney Curran works closely with U.S. Congressmen and US Senators regarding legislative and regulatory policy. Mr. Curran is also a member of the American Health Lawyers Association and the Labor and Employment Substantive law Committee. In addition, Mr. Curran completed his Juris Doctorate at Western New England School of Law. He worked on the United States Senate Judiciary Committee, writing speeches, drafting legislation and conducting research on the Equal Rights Amendment and Civil Rights legislation.

Dan H. Berger, a graduate of Harvard College and Cornell Law School, has written numerous articles on immigration law, and is a frequent speaker at colleges and universities around the northeast. Mr. Berger has also been a Senior Editor of the Immigration and Nationality Law Handbook since 2000, was an Author/Editor of the revised National Association of Foreign Student Advisers' Manual (2000), and Editor-in-Chief of Immigration Options for Academics and Researcher (2005). He is currently the Chair of the AILA Publications Committee, and serves on the AILA-Vermont Service Center Liaison Committee. Mr. Berger developed his interest in immigration in college, where he studied immigration history and taught English as a Second Language for adult refugees. He now specializes in serving academic and corporate clients.

IMMIGRATION PRACTICE

2009 - 2010
EDITION

ROBERT C. DIVINE
R. BLAKE CHISAM

Immigration Practice 2009-2010 Edition

By: Robert C. Divine

Contributing author: R. Blake Chisam

Immigration Practice guides you through the aspects of immigration law practice in one volume. It includes 3,000+ footnotes citing statutes, regulations, court and administrative cases, policy memos, operational instructions, agency interpretive letters, websites, and more.

This reference book merges the practical with helpful commentary and analysis. Explanations are written in clear and easy to understand language. Substantive issues and actual procedures are described in the book, complete with checklists, required supporting evidence, and other essential information needed for completing a proper application and/or petition.

This book received testimonials from Daryl Buffenstein, Peter Williamson, Dale M. Schwartz, Elizabeth Stern, Joseph K. Venishnick, Ira L. Mazer, Jeffrey Kantor, Petro Morgos, Jonathan David Guze, Byron Toben, Andre Michael Wang, Philip Berns, and Seung-Ho Choe

AUTHOR

Robert C. Divine is the Chairman of the Immigration Group of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell, & Berkowitz, P.C., a law firm of 560 lawyers and public policy advisors with offices in 14 cities from Washington, D.C. to New Orleans. Mr. Divine served from July 2004 until November 2006 as Chief Counsel and for a time Acting Director of U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services (USCIS). He is the author of Immigration Practice, a 1,600 page practical treatise on all aspects of U.S. immigration law that is revised and reprinted annually to reflect the law's constant changes. He has practiced immigration law since 1986 and is the current Chair of the American Immigration Lawyers Association's Interagency Committee. His practice includes all aspects of U.S. immigration law, representing large and small international and domestic employers, family sponsors, investment regional centers, and individual foreign nationals. He has also litigated significant business matters, including class action employment discrimination, contract, commercial, product liability, antitrust, ERISA benefits, business torts (including RICO, misrepresentation, Consumer Protection Act), and immigration-related criminal matters.

CONTRIBUTOR

R. Blake Chisam is currently Legal Counsel to the Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship, Refugees, Border Security, and International Law of the United States House of Representatives. Prior to his appointment he practiced exclusively in the area of Immigration and Nationality Law as a partner in the firm of Chisam & Majid. He advised organizations with respect to immigration-related policy, employment, civil rights, and health care law matters, including related white-collar criminal and regulatory compliance issues. Mr. Chisam is an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association ("AILA"), for which he currently serves on its Business Litigation committee, and the American Bar Association ("ABA"). In October 2000, Mr. Chisam and his partner Jasmine A. Majid were awarded the prestigious Meritorious Public Service Award from the Director of the U.S. Department of Justice's Executive Office for Immigration Review, which was presented by then Attorney General Janet Reno, in recognition of their "tireless and distinguished pro bono efforts on behalf of unrepresented aliens detained by the Immigration and Naturalization Service." Mr. Chisam has lectured on immigration law to law students at universities across the U.S., and he is a frequent author and lecturer to professional associations, academic symposia and community groups. He is admitted to practice in New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania and a host of federal courts.

Business Immigration Law: Strategies For Employing Foreign Nationals

Editors: Rodney A. Malpert and Amanda Petersen

Finally, employing foreign nationals has been demystified! Business Immigration Law: Strategies for Employing Foreign Nationals guides you step by step through this intricate legal maze. An impressive array of specialists provides helpful and pragmatic advice on the nonimmigrant work authorization, including: specialty occupations (H-1Bs); intra-company transfers from abroad (L-1); and treaty traders and investors (E-1 and E-2). Coverage includes: tax issues; discrimination law problems raised by screening foreign nationals during hiring; and how to avoid sanctions for I-9 violations. This book's appendices provide forms, guidelines, regulations and other helpful materials.

Business Immigration Law: Forms and Filings

Authors: Rodney A. Malpert and Amanda Petersen

Business Immigration Law: Forms and Filings is a comprehensive guide to help immigration practitioners determine the suitable nonimmigrant work visa category for each client. Examples and explanations are provided in an easy to understand language that describe both common and unusual situations, affecting student and business visitors, treaty traders and investors, NAFTA professionals, specialty occupation workers, and more.

Discussion of every stage of the application process includes: obstacles and solutions to consider before filing; completed sample forms; support letters; supporting document checklists and filing instructions; guidance on applications for initial status, extension, amendment and change of status; needs of dependent family members; and detailed guidance on the new, stricter post-9/11 visa requirements.

Together with its companion volume, Business Immigration Law: Strategies for Employing Foreign Nationals, Business Immigration Law: Forms and Filings discuss the laws and regulations involving each nonimmigrant work visa category. This book guides the reader - step by step - through the application process. Immigration practitioners, employers, and foreign nationals will find this an indispensable resource.

The Whole ACT-INA 2009-2010 Edition

Author: Pravinchandra J. Patel

The Whole Act INA contains all recently enacted statutory provisions; provisions amending sections of the INA are incorporated in the INA itself, with significant changes included in the Appendices. This updated Edition includes 435+ annotations and editorial notes, 744 footnotes, 50 appendices, a comprehensive topical index, an appendices index, and a U.S. Supreme Court decisions index.

AUTHOR

Pravinchandra J. Patel is a practicing immigration attorney in New York since 1979. He has a Master's Degree in Law, awarded by the University of Texas Law School at Austin, in Austin, Texas, in May 1970. He is a member of the Bars of New York State, Federal District Courts of New York (Southern and Eastern Districts), and the United States Supreme Court. He is also a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. For over 22 years, he has been "of counsel" to an immigration law firm in Manhattan serving as an advisor on complex immigration cases. He is the founder of Pravinchandra J. Patel, P.C., a firm located in midtown Manhattan in New York City.

TESTIMONIALS

- "What makes Patel's 8 CFR Plus and 20/22/28 CFR Plus stand out among the other books of regulations is its excellent system of finding aids, combined with its easy-to-read and easy-to-use format of presenting the regulations. This version of regulations has withstood the test of time and is perhaps the most user-friendly of the versions available." - William Stock
- "There are several available versions of the Immigration and Nationality Act. I subscribe to most of them. For over 15 years, however, I have thought that Patel's version, called The Whole Act, was the best of the bunch. I heartily endorse it. It is easy to read. It is intelligently annotated and indexed. And in 15 years so far I have never caught a mistake. Buy it, and use it every day." - Bruce Hake
- "This book will enable conscientious lawyers to instantly obtain up-to-date status when citing administrative precedent." - Tammy Fox-Isicoff
