If you are a general practitioner who currently handles immigration matters, or who would like to expand your practice to handle these cases, plan on attending this informative seminar.

You'll learn the basics of immigration practice, including how to obtain visas and handle family based immigration. You'll also find out about the latest procedural and substantive changes that have taken place since the INS has come under the purview of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). This program is designed for those who do not concentrate in immigration practice, but who need a basic understanding of immigration practice and procedure.

ENHANCE YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF IMMIGRATION PRACTICE & PROCEDURE, INCLUDING...

- Immigrant and Non-immigrant Visas - What are they and how do you obtain them?
 - Structure of the Department of Homeland Security and Impact on the Immigration System
 - Family-based Immigration
 - Asylum
 - Removal
 - Diversity Lottery
 - Visa Waivers
 - Background Checks
 - Local Office Procedures
 - Ethical Issues
- ...and more

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- General Practitioners
- Family Law Practitioners
- Labor & Employment Lawyers
- In-House Counsel
- New Attorneys
- Paralegals and Support Staff
- Human Resource Professionals
